

Drunk Driving

Dennis Alan Lempert has handled several thousand drunk driving cases and has an excellent record of defending drivers. Dennis Alan Lempert works relentlessly to minimize the damage to you as a result of a driving under the influence arrest.

- A driving under the influence arrest can bring serious consequences
- License suspension or revocation by DMV and the Court
- A criminal record
- Mandatory minimum jail sentences
- Probation for years
- Installation of an ignition interlock device
- Large Fines increased by huge penalty assessments
- Weekly drinking driver classes
- Increased automobile insurance premiums

These consequences can apply even to a conviction for a first offense. Repeated offenses can bring even more painful including the possibility of a state prison sentence.

Challenge the suspension of your license by the DMV

- Conscientiously examine every aspect of the arrest for illegality or error by the police
- Challenge any drug, alcohol and field sobriety tests
- Negotiate for lesser charges or punishment whenever appropriate
- Work tenaciously presenting your case to a jury when appropriate
- With your consent take the case to trial.

Time is of the essence to retain a qualified attorney.

Any accused who was given an Administrative Per Se notice has only 10 days to demand a hearing at DMV to avoid an automatic license suspension.

NEVER, NEVER, NEVER talk to the police without your experienced criminal defense lawyer being present.

ALWAYS insist that you want a lawyer before you say anything.

NEVER consent to the police to search you, your car or your house without a search warrant.

If you or a person near and dear to you have been arrested for an incident involving drunk driving, IMMEDIATELY contact Dennis Alan Lempert for a free initial consultation. Call (408) 249-5152.
